

Tuesday, Nov 28th is #GivingTuesday, a global day of giving. It is a time to take a step back, be thankful for what we have, and make a concerted effort to bless those less fortunate. If you are reading this, it means you care about the communities in Nicaragua, where JustHope works tirelessly to combat poverty and nurture sustainable relationships.

The communities of Chacraseca and La Flor are places, where many families live on as little as $1 per day. People live in plastic-covered shacks and cook their food over an open fire, risking smoke inhalation, to feed their children. These are villages, where basic medical care may be out of reach and clean water is a "pipe dream." It is easy to lose hope when you toil tirelessly on the land for a mediocre yield that barely feeds your family much less provides much-needed income. How can you believe in a bright future when your children's classrooms do not have basic resources for learning?

JustHope is committed to transforming these communities and, through a variety of ambitious programming, tackles these challenges and more. Above all else, we aim to give hope back to these communities.

We ask that, on #GivingTuesday and throughout the holiday season, you join us as we #GiveHope.

Below are a few ways to give. Visit our #GiveHope website for more ideas.

Give on #GivingTuesday (or any day).

JustHope is counting on generous donations in 2017 to achieve our goals in 2018. On #GivingTuesday, the first $2,500 will be matched by an anonymous donor!

Your gift through CrowdRise will help JustHope win cash prizes in the $500k Holiday Challenge with Newman's Own Foundation. Challenge runs through Jan 2nd.
